The Victory Theatre, located in downtown Evansville, is a venue like no other. Once a grand theatre in the 1920s, the Victory has been renovated and is now the home to the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra. With 1,950 seating auditorium and generous meeting space on the third floor, the Victory would be ideal for an off-site conference or meeting location. Complete audio visual services, modem lines in every meeting room and full service catering are also available.
