Haynie’s Corner Fountain

Sitting at the heart of Evansville’s art district, this eclectic stone fountain serves as a gathering place for events like First Fridays and Funk in the City. It also symbolizes the convergence of four Evansville neighborhoods.

Joan Marchand Bridge

Built in 1891, it’s found at the mouth of Pigeon Creek on the Ohio River. It became a pedestrian-only bridge in 1996 and now offers an unmatched perspective of the river.

The Marker

The Arts Council of Southwestern Indiana commissioned the stainless steel map marker. It reflects the beautiful views of downtown at 2 Main Street.

North Main Street Gateway Mural

One of Evansville’s most popular murals sits in an unsuspecting spot. Painted on the back of a building at 28 W Indiana Street, this street art offers a colorful welcome to the North Main/Jacobsville neighborhood.

Self.e Alley

Tucked right inside a downtown alleyway at 318 Main Street, each of the letters is a popular Evansville attraction or landmark that you’ll definitely want to visit on your trip.

Every Season to Visit in Evansville

Seasons come and seasons go. But you’ll always enjoy discovering all there is to love about Evansville’s unique neighborhoods, attractions, and events and the way they ebb and flow with the weather.

Spring

Spring marks the return of a lot of our favorite things. There’s the sea of tulips outside the Visitors Center Pagoda (Image E). Blooming dogwoods about town. The hustle and bustle of people on the riverfront. Spring breakers arriving. And hints that outdoor festivals are returning.

Play ball

Just before Evansville Otters baseball returns to Bosse Field in April, college basketball ends. Ohio Valley Conference fans are here the first week of March for the college basketball championship.

Take a hike

From urban greenways to tree-lined trails, pathways throughout the city connect you to the great outdoors. The Pigeon Creek Greenway is the longest trail at nearly 7 miles, with 1.5 miles along the banks of the Ohio River.

We heart art

Haynie’s Corner Arts District is the neighborhood to know in the spring. In April, Funk in the City Art Festival marks the start of festival season. In May, First Fridays returns with art, music, brews, and local favorite food trucks.

Summer

When summer is here, you should be, too. There’s fun in the sun for all. An event for everyone. And a shady spot to wind down at the end of the day. With 65 parks and 6 seasonal pools, Evansville is the perfect place to swing, slide, swim, and splash into summer.

A splashing good time

Kids won’t want to leave after exploring the enchanted Mickey’s Kingdom, slipping and splashing down the waterslides at Burdette Park Aquatic Center, or puddle jumping at Wesselman Woods Nature Playscape.

Wine and dine

Start your day with second-story views over brunch at The Rooftop and end it with sangria on the patio at Sauced! Evansville eateries, cocktail houses, breweries, and coffee shops have mastered the al fresco dining experience.

The best of fests

May to September is the best time to visit Evansville to experience the music fests, art fests, food fests, and more that fill the calendar every weekend. Plan your trip around a signature event, like ShrinersFest & Air Show or HOLA Festival.
Fall

With pumpkins to pick and cider to sip, Evansville makes the perfect fall trip. Here, the great outdoors gets even better in the fall. Our claim-to-fame Fall Festival starts the season off and then just like that, everything else falls into place.

Leaf peeping aplenty

The best place to catch the changing colors is at Wesselman Woods (Image F) while hiking the nature trails. Open year round, the rolling hills and park-like setting of Mesker Park Zoo also make for a peak leaf peeping opportunity.

Have yourself a haunt

We can’t talk about fall without mentioning all the spectacularly spooky things to do, like visiting the ghostly Grey Lady at Willard Library or the good ol’ fashioned homegrown mysteries of Haunted Historic Evansville. Boo at the Zoo is a family-friendly Halloween favorite, too.

Claim to fried food fame

Named one of the best fall festivals in the US by Oprah Magazine and MSN in 2019, the West Side Nut Club Fall Festival covers four city blocks with more than 130 food booths and attracts over 200,000 people every October.

Winter

Our idea of a winter wonderland is seeing snow dust the window ledges of historic Main Street buildings. It’s hearing the hoots and hollers at Reitz Hill on snow days. And it’s driving around the Fantasy of Lights, hot chocolate in hand.

Merry and bright

There are over 60 displays at the Fantasy of Lights in the North Main neighborhood. Down the road, two 12-foot tall Nutcrackers welcome you to Downtown Evansville as the candle lights are lit at the Reitz Home Museum (Image G). And in Haynie’s Corner, see the tree of lights cascading down the arts district fountain.

Dashing through the snow

There are a few snowy hillsides where sleds seem to travel at the speed of light. Reitz Hill is a popular landmark on the west side. Another winter gem is Helfrich Hills Golf Course, aptly named for its sledding terrain.

Not quite reindeer games

When the weather outside is frightful, hockey fans find the Ford Center delightful. The Evansville Thunderbolts play here all winter long. Afterwards, place your bets at Tropicana Casino, with card and slot games, sports betting, and more.

We encourage you to come back every season to enjoy a variety of experiences. The Visitors Center is open year round and can help you explore the latest and greatest things happening in Evansville.
Our Great Outdoors

Your next adventure awaits you in Evansville. Walk, hike, run, cycle or canoe your way through the city. Our outdoor trails traverse 23 acres of marshland, under canopies of massive old-growth trees, and wind around the river banks. VisitEvansville.com/outdoors

Evansville, Indiana shines as a family-friendly getaway that’s just a short drive away. Whether you’re here for an afternoon or for a weekend, you’ll find something for everyone - and for every budget.

Burdette Park Aquatic Center

Image Q

Summer just got a whole lot cooler! Burdette Park Aquatic Center is one of the largest in the Midwest. It’s the perfect place to take a dip for both kids of all ages and kids at heart.

Take a dive into the large Olympic-size pool or splish and splash all the way down the impressive water slides. Smaller kids can float on a friendly snake or alligator or stay cool in the interactive spray park.

Plus, there's much more to explore at Burdette Park! Hike or bike the USI-Burdette Park trail, pick-up a game of tennis or sand volleyball, and have an overnight adventure in one of the beautiful chalets.

Mesker Park Zoo & Botanic Garden

Image S

Mesker Park Zoo connects kids to worldly experiences and exotic encounters right here in Evansville, like feeding the giraffes in the African Rift to walking about with the Budgies of Australia.
If Mesker Park Zoo is on your list of must-see spots, be sure to take a twirl or two around the Engelbrecht Carousel near the Children’s Enchanted Forest. And enchanted it is! This isn’t your average carousel. Kids can hop on hummingbirds, dolphins, polar bears, and other animals on the endangered species list.

Wondering what to do when you arrive in Evansville? Not only are there five distinguished neighborhoods waiting to be explored, but we have thriving shopping districts, a dish for every foodie, and a booming craft beer scene. Delve into our best shopping, dining and drinks.

Shopping
Evansville’s comprehensive shopping districts are an attraction all their own. Downtown Evansville’s Main Street is lined with carefully curated boutiques, specialty shops, and galleries. To the west, Franklin Street is home to many long standing small businesses and local favorites. The East Side is where you’ll find thriving shopping centers. Eastland Mall is a shopper’s paradise with a variety of retailers and dining options. Lloyd Commons is conveniently located right off the Lloyd Expressway and has all the essentials you need.

Restaurants
Foodies rejoice! One of Evansville’s most booming startup scenes is dining and drinks. There’s nothing like getting out and sampling the local flavor.

Many of our popular eateries are steps from the Ford Center or Old National Events Plaza, like Bru Burger Bar (Image CC). It operates in the historic, bright blue, Art Deco Greyhound Bus terminal and is one of the most Instagrammed spots in Evansville.

For fast casual pizza with unprecedented flavors, try Azzip Pizza. It’s the home of the world-famous March Crabness, a crab rangoon pizza. The homegrown pizzeria has 4 area locations.

Evansville’s food truck community is unmatched in the Midwest. Only Pizza Revolution (Image DD) serves wood-fired pizzas made in a red double-decker bus. Plus, you can eat everything from the classic hot dog cart to fried avocado tacos to artisan popsicles.

Nightlife
It’s easy to transition from happy hour to nightlife with one of our five local breweries or many craft cocktail houses in our thriving neighborhoods. At Mo’s House (Image EE), your favorite classic cocktails take a new twist. Don’t let the sophisticated
Downtown Evansville is an entertainment destination. Summer evenings get a lot cooler with popular events like Night on Main (Image FF). The fun never ends when the games begin at Tropicana Evansville (Image GG). Indiana’s first 24-hour land-based casino has over 1,100 slot games and 30 table games as well as full-service sports betting.

Planning your next trip? There’s no shortage of shopping, dining, or entertainment in Evansville any time of year. Try coming during a different season to find new things to see and do.

Craft beer connoisseurs will be right at home in Evansville. One of the newest is Damsel Brew Pub, a family-friendly brewery with ales and lagers that take on the names of memorable ladies. There are up to 13 original craft beers on tap at any given time.

On the north side, Carson’s Brewery was one of Evansville’s first standalone microbreweries and the first to offer some truly unique drinking experiences, like beer yoga and brewery bingo.

vibe fool you, every weekend is a party in this Haynie’s Corner bar. Close by, Walton’s makes memorable hand-crafted cocktails and seasonal sangrias. Or, head upstairs to Fidel’s Bourbon Bar and Cigar Lounge for over 100 premium bourbons and classic prohibition-era craft cocktails.
Our Best Buys

13 Can’t-Miss Events in Evansville

Fiesta Evansville

Fiesta Evansville turns seven in 2020! The free event offers fun for the whole family during the celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month. Enjoy live music and more than 100 vendors sharing the fun, culture, and delicious cuisines from 20 Latin American countries.

First Fridays

First Fridays is a local favorite for food trucks, live music, and shopping in Haynie’s Corner Arts District. On the first Friday of May through October, make your plans to dine in one of the eclectic restaurants or grab a craft beer or cocktail in a cozy corner bar because this district will be buzzing with excitement.

Funk in the City

Every spring and fall, the annual Funk in the City arts festival returns to Haynie’s Corner. It features artists from around the Greater Evansville area and is a great opportunity to support our community of creatives. Plus, food trucks and live music make this a can’t-miss fest!

River City Pride Parade and Festival

The annual River City Pride Parade and Festival hits Haynie’s Corner Arts District in June. The day-long celebration starts with a parade before everyone enjoys food trucks, a beer garden, and music.

Franklin St. Bazaar

The Franklin St. Bazaar is a farmers market, makers market, and live entertainment all rolled into one! Head to the West Side library lawn on Saturdays from May to August to pick up some fresh cut flowers, locally-grown produce, and other eats and treats.

ShrinersFest & Air Show

Evansville’s most iconic summer festival comes to the riverfront for its 17th consecutive year. ShrinersFest is full of high-flying fun, an air show, live music, and beer gardens. Kids enjoy carnival rides and the Ultimate Air Dogs.

HOLA Latino Festival

This is one of the largest events celebrating Latino culture in our region. Don’t miss the party in August at historic Bosse Field. HOLA Latino Festival features international award-winning entertainment, over 30 authentic food vendors, and fun for the entire family.
Can’t-Miss Events in Evansville

Korn Ferry Tour Championship

Korn Ferry Tour Championship presented by United Leasing & Finance is August 24-30, 2020 at the renowned Victoria National Golf Club. This tournament is known for developing the next wave of golf stars. The top 50 golfers earn the right to play on the PGA TOUR® in 2021.

West Side Nut Club Fall Festival

Fall is everyone’s favorite time of year in Evansville because that’s when the area’s most glorified food festival returns. The Fall Festival is a week-long event with over 130 food booths, carnival rides, and free entertainment. Don’t miss one of the largest street festivals in the US.

Vanderburgh County Fair

Celebrate the 100th anniversary of one of Evansville’s largest events. It’s a week of fun, food, entertainment, and good old fashioned competition for all to experience. Held on the city’s North Side at the 4-H Center, the fair will take place July 20-25, 2020.

NoCo Makers Market

In Downtown Evansville on Carpenter Street, over 40 local makers can help you get a head start on your holiday shopping. Celebrate the changing seasons with free pumpkins and kids activities, yard games, and fire pits and s’mores stations. This event is a hit every October.

A Downtown Christmas

Celebrate the holiday season with caroling, cocoa, and of course, shopping. In December, this festive event makes spirits bright in Downtown Evansville. Santa is available for pictures, there are crafts for kids, and if it’s not snowing, the snow machine brings winter’s charm anyway.

Want to see what’s happening during your visit? Check out other big events in Evansville all year long!

Haynie’s Corner Arts District
This is an entertainment and arts district where you can dine in historic homes transformed into artisanal restaurants.
The Best Neighborhoods to Visit in Evansville

Each of our five neighborhoods tell a unique story about Evansville’s history while brimming with modern amenities and personality found around every turn. You’re sure to enjoy our coziest coffee shops, walking spots, and the best live beats at a corner bar in one of these destinations. VisitEvansville.com/cultural-districts

Downtown
Downtown Evansville is the heartbeat of our city. You’ll find the perfect mix of locals and visitors, businesses and attractions, old and new. Downtown is home to many of Evansville’s signature events, restaurants, bars, and shops. There are over 40 eateries and 30 merchants with more arriving all the time. You can eat, sleep, play, and then do it all again in Downtown Evansville.

Haynie’s Corner Arts District
If downtown is the heart beat, then Haynie’s Corner is the art beat! This is an entertainment and arts district where you can dine in historic homes transformed into artisanal restaurants. Live like a local at one of the neighborhood block parties every first Friday of the month. Or, shop seasonal vendor markets for local, vintage, and handmade goods.

North Main Street/Jacobsville
The North Main district is alive with a diverse mix of new developments and storied favorites. The bikeways and ped lanes bring in people traveling from Downtown to Garvin Park. Home to historic Bosse Field, baseball, pizza, and beer are a few hallmarks of this time-honored neighborhood. The new Deaconess Aquatic Center opens for both leisure and competitive swimmers by the 2021 pool season.

University of Evansville & Neighborhoods
The University of Evansville’s 75-acre campus fits right in with the stately Tudor-style homes and brick bungalows in this district. Walk from pizza place to coffee house, watch a renowned UE theatre production, or bike to one of the many parks, like Wesselman Woods.

West Franklin Street
You will find events and live music most weekends in this entertaining destination on the west side. This neighborhood is headlined by West Franklin Street, which is filled with restaurants, bars, and shops. If you’re a foodie, we’ll see you in October at the West Side Nut Club Fall Festival. This is one of the country’s biggest street fairs with over 130 food booths.
